The Labour Theory of Value and the Concept of Exploitation

The Value Controversy, published by Verso in 1981, followed a series of debates over Marx's labor theory of value that began with the publication of neo-Ricardian economist Piero Sraffa's The Production of Commodities by Means of Commodities (1960), and which took particular salience in socialist economic theory with the 1977 publication of Ian

On the neoricardian interpretation of profit

On the neoricardian interpretation of profit by Georg Stamatis One of the important components of the modern neoricardian theory is its critique of the marxian theory. A central place in this critique is occupied by the so-called surplus-approach which constitutes the modern neoricardian theory of profit. As it is known, Marx interprets profit as the form of appearance of surplus value. Thus

Type 0 string theory Wikipedia

The Type 0 string theory is a less well-known model of string theory. It is a superstring theory in the sense that the worldsheet theory is supersymmetric . However, the spacetime spectrum is not supersymmetric and, in fact, does not contain any fermions at all.
